

AGENDA

12TH ANNUAL GREEN INFRASTRUCTURE CONFERENCE OCTOBER 30, 2024

- 12:00 PM Registration, Lunch, and Networking
- 12:20 PM Virtual guests log in
- 12:30 PM Welcome
Bill Rhodes, Partner, and Conference Co-Chair, Ballard Spahr LLP
- 12:30 – 1:30 PM Panel 1: Electric Vehicle Infrastructure Challenges and Solutions
- Session Description: As electric vehicles become more common on our roads, the infrastructure necessary to support those vehicles has struggled to catch up. Our panelists represent three sectors critical to the future of EV infrastructure: retail fuel distribution, electric power distribution, and government.
- Moderator: Brendan Collins, Partner, Ballard Spahr LLP
- Panelists:
- Thomas Bonner, Energy Policy Manager, PECO
 - Vincent Cipollone, Director of EV Charging & New Fuel Business, Wawa
 - Derrick Herrmann, PE, Chief, Transformational Technology, PA Department of Transportation – Strategic Development and Implementation Office
- 1:30 – 1:40 PM Break
- 1:40 – 2:10 PM Keynote: Peter Knorr, Director of Port Operations, on behalf of New Jersey Economic Development Authority (NJEDA) and the NJ Wind Port project and Q&A with John Kuehne, Lead Counsel for the project
- Session Description: Mr. Knorr will provide a comprehensive overview of the New Jersey Wind Port, a development designed, built, and operated exclusively to support offshore wind projects. This critical infrastructure is necessary for a transition to a clean energy economy and, at full buildout, will create thousands of new jobs.
- 2:10 – 2:20 PM Break

Panel 2: The Rising Demand for Data Centers and the Challenges They Bring

Session Description: As a new wave of data center development takes off, both the public and private sectors reflect on lessons learned and the next steps. Our panelists will discuss trends in data center policy and governmental incentives, project financing, and possible innovations moving forward. These innovations may include colocation with power generation sources and possibly bringing off-line nuclear facilities back online.

Moderator: Alyssa Domzal, Partner, Ballard Spahr LLP

Panelists:

- Mason Emmett, Senior Vice President of Public Policy, Constellation
- Wayne Barnett, Head, Public Policy & External Affairs, Cordia
- Kaitlin Monaghan, Director of Public Policy for North America, Vantage Data Centers

3:20 – 3:30 PM

Break

3:30 – 4:30 PM

Panel 3: Inflation Reduction Act and the Greenhouse Gas Reduction Fund

Session Description: Building on last year's discussion, this session will feature panelists who have received an allocation from the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) under the Greenhouse Gas Reduction Fund or are partnering with/supporting recipients. The panel will explore how these funds are being allocated and what types of projects are in the pipeline. Panelists will discuss the strategies for deploying these funds, addressing the unique challenges in ensuring their impact, and leveraging the opportunities to collaborate. Attendees will gain insights into how green banks and partners are working to overcome barriers and accelerate the implementation of emissions reduction and resilience projects, particularly in low-income and disadvantaged communities. This session will also cover the lessons learned so far and what lies ahead for stakeholders in the green financing landscape.

Moderator: Holly Horsley, Partner, Ballard Spahr LLP

Panelists:

- Mark Chambers, Vice President of Partnerships, Elemental Impact
- Maryrose Myrtetus, Executive Director, Philadelphia Green Capital Corp.
- Curtis Probst, Chief Executive Officer, New York City Energy Efficiency Corporation (NYCEEC)
