Background & Experience

Alejandro Rettig y Martinez is an associate in the Litigation Department. While in law school, Alejandro served as a student attorney for the Federal Criminal Justice Clinic, the only legal clinic in the country that exclusively represents indigent clients charged with federal felonies. He also worked for the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency in Chicago. After law school, Alejandro served as a law clerk for the Honorable Michael S. Kanne of the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Seventh Circuit.

Alejandro was a 2016 Ballard Spahr summer associate.
